

Directions to Catamaran ECHO:

Located in "old town" Key West in the center of the Historic Seaport and Harbor Walk.

From Eaton St. turn on Margaret St. toward the "Historic Seaport Harbor Walk". Just before the water, parking is in the lot on the left across from Flagler Train Station or in the parking garage one block to the right. At the foot of Margaret St. walk past the front door of Turtle Kraals Restaurant and out the cement pier, past the Turtle Museum and turn left on the wood pier "D" and walk straight ahead to ECHO (not Eco).

You may take a shuttle, cab, bike or walk to the end of Margaret Street and the "Historic Seaport and Harbor Walk" Or hop on the harbor walk anywhere along the waters edge and head for the big old tower behind the Turtle Kraals restaurant. The Echo dock is located right out Turtle Kraals back door, below the tower, facing the harbor walk. Look for the big "Catamaran Echo" (not Eco).

On Your Trip Bring:

Towel, Sun screen on (no oil), Hat, Camera, Sunglasses (polarized best), a light jacket in winter, a small bag to secure your things, a few bucks and a Big Smile! It's best to have a balanced meal before boating.

To Protect Wild Dolphins, ECHO strictly follows all Federal Laws that state that it is illegal to touch, feed, chase, dive into or harass Marine Mammals.
